

Colombus
The Church

G6 (320030)

[Intro]

Em C Am x3

[Verse]

Em

The king had something

C

changed within him

Am

I should have told him no

Em C

Oh Colombus,

Am

I never should have let you go

Em

Now aching wires,

C Am

midnight fires Things I could not know

Em C

Oh Colombus,

Am

I never should have let you go

Am G

You don t suppose there d

F D

Be room in here somewhere for me

Am G F D

I think I just need Someones words to reassure me

C D Fmaj7 G6

I don t blame any of you, and I don t blame myself

[Instrumental]

Em C Am x3

[Verse]

Em C Am

Waiting for my small reward It s going to come somehow

Em C Am

Oh Colombus, I wish that you could see us now

Em C Am

We don t posess a single empty tear Or furrowed brow

Em C Am

Oh Colombus, I wish that you could see us now

Am G

You don t suppose there d

F D
Be room in here somewhere for me
Am G F D
I think I just need Someone s words to reassure me
C D Fmaj7 G6
I can t change any of you, I can t change myself

[Instrumental]

Em C Am x3

[Verse]

Em C Am
The man had something strange about him He should have let me know
Em C Am
Oh Columbus, I wish I d never let you go
Am G
You don t suppose there d
F D
Be room in here somewhere for me
Am G F D
I think I just need Someones words to reassure me
C D Fmaj7 G6 Em
I don t blame any of you, and I don t blame myself Colombus