

Lily Love
The Civil Wars

The civil wars and chieftains
Key of A,
Play with capo on second fret
First time putting up chords, hope you enjoy :- ) J

G                      D
Down, down by the sea
                         C              D
There is a crown of daisies
G                      D                      C D G
High, high on a hill, my little Lily Love
G                      D                      C              D
West wind in your hair, tied up in golden daisies
G                      D                      C D G
She s chasing you down, my little Lily Love

D                      C                      G
You hide and seek high and low
D                      C              D              G
In every corner of my soul

G              D                      C                      D
I almost hear the sound of your heart beating
G                      D                      C D G
Oh, like it s my own, my little Lily Love
D                      C                      G
You hide and seek every day
D                      C                      D C D C D C D
You just get farther away

G                      D
What, what kind of world
                         C                      D
Would take a sweet wild flower
G                      D
And pull it up from the ground
                         C D G
My little Lily Love?

G                      D                      C                      D
Oh, down by the sea there is a crown of daisies
G                      D                      C D G
I ll never forget my little Lily Love
