Lock and Key

intro:

F#m A
F#m A
Bm E
Bm E

F#m A F#m A
I keep it under lock and key My world is heavy can you hear my plea
Bm E
I m growing tired of this tear-stained eye
Bm E
Sometimes I wonder why I even try
C#m Bm
So I keep it under lock and key
C#m Bm
I guess it wasn t really meant to be I keep it under lock and key

F#m A
I keep it behind my front door
F#m A
My ears are ringing and my throat is sore
Bm E
I m growing tired of lonely place
Bm E
Sometimes I wonder when I ll see your face
C#m Bm
So I keep it behind my front door
C#m Bm
I guess you never really know for sure I keep it behind my front door

F#m A
I keep it under lock and key
F#m A
My heart is heavy and my legs are weak

Bm E
I m growing tired of the lonely life
Bm E
I want a child and I want a wife
C#m Bm
Then I ll open up my front door
C#m Bm
I ll tell you when I know for sure
C#m Bm
I ll get down on my one good knee and
C#m Bm
I ll ask you will you marry me

Then I ll throw away this lock and key
