The Clash
Gates of the West

```

[tab]Intro riff:
-----|
-----|
-----|
-----|
-----3--3-----3--3-----|
--3--5-----5--5--3--3--5--5-----5--5---|[/tab]

(repeats 4 times)

```

[tab]Bb
I would love to be the lucky one on Chill Avenue[/tab]
[tab]Gm
Who could keep your hear warm when ice has turned it blue[/tab]
[tab]F
But with the beggin sleeping losers as they turn in for the night[/tab]
[tab]Bb
I m looking back for home and I can see the lights[/tab]

```

[tab]Bb

I should be jumpin shoutin that I made it all this way[/tab]

[tab]Gm

>From Camden Town Station to 44th and 8th[/tab]

[tab]F

Not many make it this far and many say we re great[/tab]

[tab]Bb

But just like them we walk on an we can t escape our fate[/tab]

[tab]Gm Eb F

Can t you hear the sighing[/tab]

[tab]Bb Eb

Eastside Jimmy and Southside Sue[/tab]

[tab] F Ebsus Bb

Both say they needed something new[/tab]

CHORUS

[tab] Bb

So I m standing at the gates of the West[/tab]

[tab] Dm

I burn money at the lights of the sign[/tab]

[tab] Eb F Bb

The city casts a shadow of the perfect crime[/tab]

I m standing at the gates of the East

[tab] Dm

I take my pulse and the pulse of my friend[/tab]

[tab] Eb F Bb

The city casts a shadow, will I see you again?[/tab]

The immigrants an remnants of all the glory years
Are clustered around the bar again for another round of beers
Little Richard s in the kitchen playing spoons and plates
He s telling the waitress he s great

Ah say I know somewhere back n forth in time
Out on the dustbowls, deep in the roulette mine
Or in a ghetto cellar only yesterday
There s a move into the future for the U.S.A.

I hear them crying
Eastside Jimmy and Southside Sue
Both say they needed something new

CHORUS

Bb Dm Dm Gm Gm Eb Eb

Bb Dm Dm Gm Gm Eb Eb

Bb Dm Dm Gm Gm Eb Eb Bb

(with chords from chorus)

Standing at the gates of the West

In the shadow again
Standing at the gates of the West
In the shadow again
In the shadow again
