I m looking back for home and I can see the lights[/tab]
```

[tab]D
I should be jumpin shoutin that I made it all this way[/tab]
[tab]Bm
>From Camden Town Station to 44th and 8th[/tab]
[tab]A
Not many make it this far and many say we re great[/tab]
[tab]D
But just like them we walk on an we can t escape our fate[/tab]

[tab]Bm G A
Can t you hear the sighing[/tab]
[tab]D G
Eastside Jimmy and Southside Sue[/tab]
[tab] A Dsus D
Both say they needed something new[/tab]

CHORUS

[tab] D
So I m standing at the gates of the West[/tab]
[tab] F#m
I burn money at the lights of the sign[/tab]
[tab] G A D
The city casts a shadow of the perfect crime[/tab]

I m standing at the gates of the East
[tab] F#m
I take my pulse and the pulse of my friend[/tab]
[tab] G A D
The city casts a shadow, will I see you again?[/tab]

The immigrants an remnants of all the glory years
Are clustered around the bar again for another round of beers
Little Richard s in the kitchen playing spoons and plates
He s telling the waitress he s great

Ah say I know somewhere back n forth in time
Out on the dustbowls, deep in the roulette mine
Or in a ghetto cellar only yesterday
There s a move into the future for the U.S.A.

I hear them crying
Eastside Jimmy and Southside Sue
Both say they needed something new

CHORUS

D F#m F#m Bm Bm G G
D F#m F#m Bm Bm G G
D F#m F#m Bm Bm G G D

(with chords from chorus)
Standing at the gates of the West

In the shadow again
Standing at the gates of the West
In the shadow again
In the shadow again
