

The Depths Below
The Cog Is Dead

The Depths Below

Verse:

Cm

There s an ancient legend
An oceanic tale

Fm Cm G

An underwater monster not a fish and not a whale

Cm

It isn t quite a creature
It isn t quite machine

Fm Cm G Cm

And you won t know what hit you til you hear your crewmen scream!

Down below the ocean
It s waiting in the dark
When there s stormy weather it will tear your ship apart
Its tentacles are massive
Its teeth are made of steel
You may call it myth, but I assure you that it s real!

Chorus:

Fm Cm G Cm

When the waves come rolling in, and lightning fills the sky,

Fm Cm G Cm

All the sailors know that the leviathan is nigh!

Fm Cm G Cm

If he grabs onto your boat, he ll never let you go

Fm Cm G

Soon you ll join a thousand ships he s sent to the depths below!

A body made of metal
But with a living brain
Survivors who have told of it have all been called insane
But many ships have vanished
They ve gone without a word
Perhaps the stories that these sailors tell aren t that absurd!

So if you sail the ocean
Stay always on your guard
Or you may wind up lifeless when that monster hits you hard
He ll wrap himself around you
You ll wish that you weren t born
So if this beast attacks you please don t say that you weren t warned!

When the waves come rolling in, and lightning fills the sky,

All the sailors know that the leviathan is nigh!
If he grabs onto your boat, he ll never let you go--
Soon you ll join a thousand ships he s sent to the depths below!

When the waves come rolling in, and lightning fills the sky,
All the sailors know that the leviathan is nigh!
If he grabs onto your boat, he ll never let you go--
Soon you ll join a thousand ships he s sent to the depths be...
