Corb Lund - Dig Gravedigger Dig Acoustic

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l7QlWgxNFEw>

This should be enough to get you going, it s not perfect but the general shape is there. Just listen to the song to get the weird strumming pattern somewhat down.

I realize the chord names may not be right but hopefully they ll get the point across.

Before rigor mortis sets in, dig

Dig, dig, Gravedigger

Dig, Gravedigger, dig

That big old hole just keeps gettinâ€™ bigger

So dig, Gravedigger, dig

F

He donâ€™t mind the cadavers, he donâ€™t mind human remains

C

Bb

He got no problem sleepinâ€™ at night, ainâ€™t nothinâ€™ a little whiskey wonâ€™t tame

Bbsus

F

I asked about ghosts and spirits, I asked him if he ever got spooked

Bb

F Bb Go

I asked him if he ever gets haunted by souls, but he reckons that he buries them, too

Bbsus

Nah, he ainâ€™t bothered by corpses, hell, heâ€™ll plant stiffes all day

Bb hold

See, heâ€™s on a some kinda piecework deal, he gets paid by the grave

He could be makinâ€™ more money, he could be out workinâ€™ the rigs

But he says he donâ€™t really like no company, he says heâ€™d rather just dig

Gravedigger, he got secrets, he told me as he lit up a cig

He says you gotta watch you donâ€™t badger the hole when youâ€™re cutting through the roots and the twigs

Heâ€™ll work right through in the darkness, then heâ€™ll stop and heâ€™ll take him a swig

Drive by the right time of the night you might find him in the moonlight doinâ€™ a jig
