Album: Horse Soldier! Horse Soldier!

Capo 2nd Fret

This is pretty funny song, and a fun one too! It still makes me laugh, even after hearing it so many times since 2007. It sounds correct to me, but in a way I almost feel as if the chords should be played at higher frets. Maybe that s because of the mandolin intro and banjo throughout the song. But if I did make any mistakes, please comment and I will correct it! Be sure to check out Corb Lund s new album too, Cabin Fever ;) I personally love it. Please rate, comment, and enjoy!
