C
Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,
C F
Will you gang to the hielands wi me,
G C
Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,
F G C
My bride and my darling to be?

C
To gang to the hielands wi you, sir,
C F
Would bring the sad (pronounced saw)tear to my e e
G C
Aye and leave the green glens and woodlands
F G C
And streams o my ain country.

C
Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,
C F
Will you gang to the hielands wi me,
G C
Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,
F G C
My bride and my darling to be?

C
I ll show you the home o the red deer,
C F
On mountains where waves the tall pine,
G C
And as far as the bound o the red deer,
F G C
Ilk moorland and mountain is mine.

C
Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,
C F
Will you gang to the hielands wi me,
G C

Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,

F G C

My bride and my darling to be?

C

A thousand claymores I can muster

C F

Ilk blade and its bearer the same,

G C

And when round their chieftains they rally,

F G C

The gallant Argyle is my name.

C

Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,

C F

Will you gang to the hielands wi me,

G C

Will you gang to the hielands, Leezie Lindsay,

F G C

My bride and my darling to be?

C

There s dancing and joy in the hielands,

C F

There s piping and gladness and glee,

G C

For Argyle has brought hame Leezie Lindsay

F G C

His bride and his darling to be.
