

Here Come The Young Men
The Courteeners

Intro:

D, Em, Bm, G

D
I m in work in an hour and a half
G
and the gin is still fresh on the end of my scarf
D
How long can we keep up with this
F G D
And if we didnt is there anything that we would miss

D, Em, Bm, G

D
The sun comes up over raven south
F G
You re a raving, misbehaving mouth
D F
I never thought that we d like each other but lo and behold
G D G
This love will last for ever, and ever, and ever

D
I ll never show my back to the painting
(cant make this out?)
Youth encompassed ready and straight in
D
She look at me like nobody else can
F G
Eye to eye, eye to eye

D, Em, Bm, G

D G
Are we getting older, are we getting wiser
D Bm
Or are we getting none of the above and does it matter when
G D G
This love will last forever, and ever, and ever and then

Bm F#m Em
And so the party s finished seratonin has diminished
Bm F#m Bm
The curtains become see through and there s a cadbury s flake in the corner
F#m Em
And we ll be doing it all again, weekend in Burnage was our den

Bm F#m

A bond we made together

D Em G

This love will last for ever, and ever, and ever

Outro:

D, Em, Bm, G, D