E
I m in work in an hour and a half
A and the gin is still fresh on the end of my scarf
E
How long can we keep up with this
G A E
And if we didnt is there anything that we would miss

E, F#m, C#m, A

E
The sun comes up over raven south
G A
You re a raving, misbehaving mouth
E G
I never thought that we d like each other but lo and behold
A E A
This love will last for ever, and ever, and ever

E
I ll never show my back to the painting
(cant make this out?)
Youth encompassed ready and straight in
E
She look at me like nobody else can
G A
Eye to eye, eye to eye

E, F#m, C#m, A

E A
Are we getting older, are we getting wiser
E C#m
Or are we getting none of the above and does it matter when
A E A
This love will last forever, and ever, and ever and then

C#m G#m F#m
And so the party s finished seratonin has diminished
C#m G#m C#m
The curtains become see through and there s a cadbury s flake in the corner
G#m F#m
And we ll be doing it all again, weekend in Burnage was our den
