W. B. Yeats Second

Why should I blame her,
there she filled my days
With misery or that she would of late
Have taught to ignor can t man violent ways
Or harled the little streets upon the grenout
Had they but courage

Equal to desire

Sad there Mand Gonne couldn t stay But she had MacBride anyway and you sit here with me on the isle In istree and your writing down everything

But I know by now
Why did you sit here
In the grave...

Why should I blAme her,
Had they but courage equal to desire
