Tree lined streets, not even on the map

Summer early evening glows

Then ask your friends if you can learn to enjoy sorrow

Ebm
See you told her once,

E
You told her twice,

E F#
And now she s found herself with no tomorrow

E F#
You see the truth s unfair

B
Home at last,

G#m
Is anybody there?

E F#
No. There s been no proof, who cares

B
Alone at last,

G#m
Is anybody there?

E F# B
No, no, no.

Cut to the scene of a broken dream
On a day of long shadows
You went there once,
Never looked back
What s not right, I ll never know

Then ask your friends if they could learn to enjoy sorrow
You might be tough,
Yeah I know your type,
Until you find yourself with no tomorrow

You see the truth s unfair
Home at last,
Is anybody there?
No. There s been no proof, who cares
Alone at last,
Is anybody there?
No, no, no.
