A Strange Day
The Cure
```

В

Give me your eyes that I can see

В

The blind man kissing my hands

The sun is humming (Continua a mesma progressão)

My head turns to dust as he plays on his knees

As he plays on his knees

Refrão:

And the sand and the sea glows I close my eyes

Move slowly through drowning waves

Going away on a strange day

(Mesma progressão da primeira estrofe)

And I laugh as I drift in the wind

Blind

Dancing on a beach of stone

Cherish the faces as they wait for the end

Sudden hush across the water

And we re here again

(Refrão)

My head falls back and the walls crashed in

And the sky and the impossible explodes

And for one moment I remember a song

An expression of sounds

And the everything is gone forever
