When i see you sky as i kite, as high as i might i can t get that high
B/C#	F#4/B	B	F#4/B
the how you move, the way you burst the clouds, it makes me want to try when i see you sticky as lips, as licky as trips i can t lick that far but when you pout the way you shout out loud it makes me want to start and when i see you happy as a girl that swims in a works of magic show it makes me bite my fingers through to think i could ve let you go

B/C#	A	B/C#
And when i see you take the same sweet steps
	A	B/C#	A
you used to take i say i ll keep holding you B/C#	A	(Intro)
my arms so tight, i ll never let you slip away and when i see you kitten as a cat yeah as smitten as that i can t get that small the way you fur

the how you purr it makes me want to paw you all
and when i see you happy as a girl that lives in a world of make-believe it makes me pull my hair all out to think i could ve let you leave and when i see you take the same sweet steps you used to take i know i ll keep on holding you in arms so tight

they ll never let you go
