The Lyrics alone:

Stars by The Dandy Warhols

I thought i could touch the stars i lie awake at night i wonder where you are my face explodes to drops into tears and every second i m not with you well it seems like years, seems like years i told you, that i loved you that i killed you, yea, ye-ea i won t die, but i won t feel the same i spend up all of my time hoping to see you again

i told you, and i warned you that i loved you, yea my face explodes to drops into tears yehea

and every second i m not with you well it seems like years, seems like years and i warned you that i loved you, yea i told you, yeeea , yea...
