

Symmetry

The Dangerous Summer

If you're looking for a completely correct version, check out the tabs... I'm a crap guitar player, but I really love the song so I sewed a few chords together.

You can transpose (this is in a higher key) with the lovely buttons up top. It's far from perfect, but it could work if you're desperate... Have a nice day! :)

Song: Symmetry

Artist: The Dangerous Summer

Tab: Kateigh

CAPO 2 (if you're singing it higher like me)

G Cadd9

I stayed awake just long enough to see you. 

G Cadd9

Remember Winnipeg, and feeling simpler back then? 

G Cadd9

I took a week off from my band and flew out, 

G Cadd9

It was a Saturday, I saw you waiting by the plane. 

CHORUS

G D Em7 Cadd9

I was always in a way just a long shot; I was never in the clear of that.

G D Em7 Cadd9

I am lucky just to be a potential, but I will always make a mess of that.

G D Em7 Cadd9 G D Em7 Cadd9

Of that Of that 

G Cadd9

I traded symmetry for everything I loved. 

G Cadd9

I took my feelings out and I had told you I was done. 

CHORUS B

G D Em7 Cadd9

I know your mistakes, does that bother you that

G D Em7 Cadd9

I found where they stay? Can I reach you yet?

G D Em7 Cadd9

I stood up so fast and I let you down. 

G D Em7 Cadd9

It was the first time that I heard, I heard that sound.

G D Em7 Cadd9

It filled my head with the darkest shade of black and I met you there.

G

D

Em7

Cadd9

I realized then that I was just a little sad, and I left you there.
