The Least I Can Do The David Wax Museum

The Least I Can Do By The David Wax Museum Tab by A. Damitz This is easiest played capo d on the 2nd fret, and how Wax plays live. G Am I dont see my sisters too much, As if state lines were cattle guards Am I dont see my parents that much, mamas health makes traveling hard Am I dont see my hometown that much, but I picture it frozen in time. Everyone has moved on in some way, as I have moved on in mind. Chorus x 2 BmEm Im not trying to get away, from anything, or anyone Im not trying to get away from you. Bridge At least thats what I tell myself Its the least I can do. G Am C G  $\times$  2 I dont listen to my old records that much, something different bout the way the sound G Am C I dont swallow my pride too much, there isnt anything there to keep down Am C I dont think of you all that much, maybe once or twice each afternoon You see my heart is like a flower, once it opens it cant un-bloom Chorus x2 again Em Im not trying to get away, from anything, or anyone Im not trying to get away from you. Bridge C At least thats what I tell myself Its the least I can do.

(This next part twice with a hold on "heart― on the second repeat and an Am finishing) So much planted youd think something wouldve grown in your heart In your heart in your heart Chorus x 2 last time Bm Em Im not trying to get away, from anything, or anyone Im not trying to get away from you.
