Pretty simple song for guitar, not so for vocals. If there are any mistakes comment or e-mail me. The lyrics may not be perfect as well.

Dm A Dm A Bb F A

Dm A

Come away young man where the ground is red and you need a mask to breathe

Dm A

Oh it's been so hard but you'll like the change if you just roll up your sleeves.

Bb F

We had traveled past the road before but it $\operatorname{didn} \widehat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ t get you far

Α

now only you can unleash to them your agonizing scar

Dm A

Open eyes young man with your ready hands and all prepared for pain

Dm A

You will lose much more in the vicious war as the present stays the same

Bb F

but the time to come will be all too soon if you listen to our song

A Gm F E

Where we sing in vain and the fact remains there was nothing carried

> First chord of "In Caude Venenum―

Changing A chords to A7 gives this song some cool inflections.
