DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m D/F# F#m

By the bumper cars, in the pretty twining light,

I may have gone too far, I may have gone too much, too long, I m a dull and witless boy $$

DaddE Dmaj7 DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m D/F# F#m

In the after bars, think I was sullied by a dream
In the killing jar, you and me at war at arms, all falling in embrace

DaddE Dmaj7 DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m

F# G# A B C# Bm A F#m/D E F#/D F#m

Tell me why you lied, and what it is you do to keep your eyes all shiny

A tawny gypsy girl, sleeping blanketed by stars Beneath the tilt-a-whirl, where we were coyly caught alone All fumbling with your blouse

Tell me why you lied, and what it is you do to keep your eyes all shiny

And in the rollercoaster din

By the parachutes in saddle shoes you break your shin

E D D/F# F#m D/F# F#m

But I have never seen two eyes so shiny

DaddE Dmaj7 DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m D/F# F#m DaddE Dmaj7 DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m D/F# F#m

And the sullen beery swine

Try to tangle you in sullen beery balls of twine

Have they ever seen two eyes so shiny

The boys in denim vests, smoking cigarettes between Their bootblack fingertips, sweetly tipsy by the half-light The light and the half-light

DaddE Dmaj7 DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m

Tell me why you lied and what it is you do to keep your eyes so shiny

DaddE Dmaj7 DaddE Dmaj7 D/F# F#m D/F# F#m Oh, shiny... (repeat and fade)
