Intro: G

Verse 1:

Em Margaret arrayed the rocks around the hull before it was sinking G
Em G [or play Riff
1]
A million stones, a million bones, a million holes within the chinking
Am C
And painting rings around your eyes these peppered holes

G [or play Riff 2]

So filled with crying

Am C G
A whisper weighed upon the tattered down where you and I were lying

Verse 2: (use verse 1 chords)

Em G
Tell me now, tell me this, A forest s son, a river s daughter
Em G [or play Riff

1]
A willow on the willow wisp, our ghosts will wander all of the water
Am C G [or play Riff

2]
So let s be married here today these rushing waves to bare our witness

Am C G Em D
And we will lie like river stones rolling only where it takes us

Chorus:

C Am G Em D
But I pulled you and I called you here (Didnâ€™t I, didnâ€™t I, didnâ€™t I?)

Am C G Em
And I caught you and I brought you here (Didnâ€™t I.....

D Am C/B C G
These hazards of love, never more will trouble us

Slide and Banjo solo played over these chords:

Em-G x2
Am-C-G x2

Verse 3: (use verse 2 chords)

Oh Margaret the lapping waves are licking quietly at our ankles another bow another breath this brilliant chills come for the shackle
With this long last rush of air we speak our vows and sorry whispers when the waves came crashing down, he closed his eyes and softly kissed her

Chorus: (use above chorus chords)
But I pulled you and I called you here,
And I caught you and I brought you here
These hazards of love, never more will trouble us.
And these hazards of love, never more will trouble us.
