F#m C#m F#m C#m
This is the life of a woman with demons
F#m C#m F#m C#m
The first time we met I was sure she was steaming
Dm Dm
This is my life, this is my life
F#m C#m F#m C#m
What a life
F#m C#m F#m C#m
Life isnâ€™t precious and life isnâ€™t sacred
F#m C#m F#m C#m
Sometimes release only comes when you meet death
Dm Dm
A night of reprieve we were wrecked
F#m C#m F#m C#m
when we slept in the park
Dm Dm
When we woke in the morning you cried
Am Em F G
could I squeeze out the dark
Am Em F G
Destroy the noises that make all the voices
Am Em F G
Get them out of my head
Am Em F G
Bring on the screaming and Iâ€™ll take your demons
Am Em F Em
now that Iâ€™m already dead

[same as verse above]
Days of release when she almost felt better
Gradually faded and words couldnâ€™t get her
Where is the light, where is the light, get the light
Fearless and clear all her doubts had been cast off
Last night alive is a nightmare Iâ€™m part of Dreams are a lie, dreams are a lie

So am I

If that's all there is then I might as well get in the fire

[same as chorus]

Destroy the noises that make all the voices

Get them out of my head

Bring on the screaming and I'll take your demons now that I'm already dead

Oh how the rights of the righteous kept coming

Shining before like the day

I stand before them and cried that you're dying your way

F#m C#m F#m C#m F#m C#m F#m

I'm still not sure if the right and the wrong side is one
