

There Is A Time
The Dillardards

There is a Time (written by Rodney Dillard and Mitch Jayne)

[Verse 1]

Bm

There is a time for love and laughter,

D Bm

The days will pass like summer storms;

D Bm

The winter winds will follow after,

G A Bm

But there is love and love is warm.

[Chorus]

Bm

There is a time for us to wander,

D Bm

When time is young and so are we;

D Bm

The woods are greener over yonder;

G A Bm

The path is new and the world is free.

[Verse 2]

Bm

There is a time when leaves are fallin ,

D Bm

The woods are gray, the paths are old;

D Bm

The snow will come when geese are calling ,

G A Bm

We need a fire against the cold.

[Chorus]

Bm

So do your roamin in the springtime,

D Bm

You ll find your love and a summer sun;

D Bm

The frost will come and bring a harvest,

G A Bm

And you can rest when the day is done.

[Chorus]

Bm

So do your roamin in the springtime,

D

Bm

You ll find your love and a summer sun;

D

Bm

The frost will come and bring a harvest,

G

A

Bm

And you can rest when the day is done.
