

Wishful Thinking
The Ditty Bops

E
Why does blood turn brown when it dries
Gb
Why do the tears well up in your eyes
Cb
Why didn't I learn to ride my bike
E Cb
When it was warm and sunny outside

Why can't little kids tie their shoes
Gb
Why can't the white people play the blues
Cb
Why can't I fall in love with you
It must be because of the seasons

Cb E
When the leaves start falling from the trees
Cb E
When the birds start flirting with the bees
Cb E E13
When the wind starts blowing from the East to the West
A Am E
Maybe you'll be the one that I like best

Clouds start forming I can't complain
Gb
Cause I think we might be in need of some rain
Cb
When it starts pouring
E Cb
Don't hide away without me

I bought an umbrella big enough for two
Gb
But it feels pretty empty under here without you
Cb
Dry as a bone but I'm still alone
I'm so gray

Cb E
When you're standing in a puddle with wet feet

Cb E E13
And your head is sore from pounding drops of sleet
Cb E E13
When the cold and lonely hours put your heart to the test
A Am E
Maybe I ll be the one that you like best

A Am
If the sky can open its eyes
E Gb
And cry from up above
Gbm Cb
Let s shed some tears of joy
E13 E
And fall in love
