Wishful Thinking The Ditty Bops

Е Why does blood turn brown when it dries Why do the tears well up in your eyes Why didn t I learn to ride my bike Cb When it was warm and sunny outside Why can t little kids tie their shoes Gb Why can t the white people play the blues Cb Why can t I fall in love with you It must be because of the seasons Cb Е When the leaves start falling from the trees Е When the birds start flirting with the bees E13 When the wind starts blowing from the East to the West Maybe you ll be the one that I like best Ε Clouds start forming I can t complain Cause I think we might be in need of some rain Cb When it starts pouring Cb Don t hide away without me Е I bought an umbrella big enough for two But it feels pretty empty under here without you Dry as a bone but I m still alone I m so gray Cb

When you re standing in a puddle with wet feet

Maybe I ll be the one that you like best
