

Wishful Thinking
The Ditty Bops

Eb

Why does blood turn brown when it dries

F

Why do the tears well up in your eyes

Bb

Why didn't I learn to ride my bike

Eb

Bb

When it was warm and sunny outside

Eb

Why can't little kids tie their shoes

F

Why can't the white people play the blues

Bb

Why can't I fall in love with you

Eb

It must be because of the seasons

Bb

Eb

When the leaves start falling from the trees

Bb

Eb

When the birds start flirting with the bees

Bb

Eb

Eb13

When the wind starts blowing from the East to the West

G#

G#m

Eb

Maybe you'll be the one that I like best

Eb

Clouds start forming I can't complain

F

Cause I think we might be in need of some rain

Bb

When it starts pouring

Eb

Bb

Don't hide away without me

Eb

I bought an umbrella big enough for two

F

But it feels pretty empty under here without you

Bb

Dry as a bone but I'm still alone

Eb

I'm so gray

Bb

Eb

When you're standing in a puddle with wet feet

Bb Eb Eb13
And your head is sore from pounding drops of sleet
Bb Eb Eb13
When the cold and lonely hours put your heart to the test
G# G#m Eb
Maybe I ll be the one that you like best

G# G#m
If the sky can open its eyes
Eb F
And cry from up above
Fm Bb
Let s shed some tears of joy
Eb13 Eb
And fall in love
