

Undeclared
The Dodos

C G
I like the way you hold your head
Dm Am
If your brother knew, he d have my head
C G
But I wouldn t care if I was dead
Dm Am
If I had the chance to hold your hand
C G
But my love goes undeclared
Dm Am
Yeah, my love goes undeclared
C G
And my love goes undeclared
Dm Am
Yeah, my love goes undeclared

You let me stay here for a week
On your couch but I would rather sleep
In your bed, or even better yet
We could run away and never rest
But my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared

You come to me out of a dream
And you run around like you just can t be cause your mind is filled with fantasies
And it makes me laugh and it comforts me
But my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared

You give me your insanity
But I think it might be vanity cause you want what you can t have for free
And you don t know what it means to me
So my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
Yeah, my love stays undeclared
