As I See The Poppies Fall
The Dogs D'Amour
AS I SEE THE POPPIES FALL
D, Em, G
Come on boys
D, Em, G, D
             Em
As I see the poppies fall
I try to think what it must have been like
        Em
To fight and die
    G
In a war, what for
            \mathbf{Em}
And all the promises made
        D
The only one they kept
Was to take their land
And never give it back, yeah
  Em
                                           A Asus
If only they had said what they wanted to say
It doesnâ't allways turn out that way
             Em
As I see the poppies fall
See the futility of it all
                 Em
And as I see the poppies fal
I see the futility, oooh
                 \mathbf{Em}
You left me that morning
To catch yourself a plane
```

I didn´t know what to say

G I didnÂ't wanna start again Em I didn´t want you to go Didn´t know what to say I drank my drink and pulled on my coat And as I shut the door a lump came to my throat Em G And if only I had said what I wanted to say G It doesn´t allways turn out that way, hey, hey, hey D $\mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}$ As I see the poppies fall I see the futility of it all Em G A Oh, as I see the poppies fall, oh, oh $\mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}$ As I see the poppies fall I see the futility of it all Em G A Oh, as I see the poppies fall, oh, oh Em As I see the poppies fall

I see the futility of it all

 ${f D}$ ${f Em}$ ${f G}$ ${f A}$ Oh, as I see the poppies, hey, hey, hey
