

Kiss My Heart Goodbye
The Dogs D'Amour

[Verse 1]

Em She dressed in scarlet dust for the fall C
G
Anâ€™ I kicked dead leaves up against the wall
D
In my well-worn silver tipped boots
Em And the streets of Paris got on my nerves C
G
We avoided the crowds, and we hung out with the dogs
D
In the store where the air was warm
Em This is just a dirty tourist town C
G D
Where the whores and the junkies go to get up, yeah, or get down

[Chorus 1]

G Em
You can kiss my heart goodbye
C
Cross my heart and I ll hope to die
D
You can say just what you want of me, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
G Em
You can kiss my heart goodbye
C
Cross my heart and I ll hope to die
D
You can say just what you want of me, yeah, yeah

[Verse 2]

Em
They smell, they lie
C
They don t live up to the legends, why?
G
Well the rich get fat
D
And the poor just stay that way
Em
The sad and the lonely
C
They re the only ones with style
G
Maybe we are the lost ones

D

Where the legend stems from?
