

Saviour

The Dogs D'Amour

[Verse 1]

C                            F                            G
I don t wanna throw away the key
C                            F                            G
I don t wanna throw away my self respect
C                            F                            G
I don t want you to marry me
C                            F                            G
Just let me breathe some more bad breath

[Pre-chorus]

A                            G                            F
I might be a wild flower dyin in the shade
A                            G                            F
I might be a wild pain growin in your head

[Chorus]

C            G                            F
Let me be your saviour
C                            G
I can do anything
F
I can save you

[Verse 2]

C    G
Let me lay your soul to rest
C                            F                            G
Let my lips drip red wine on your breast
C                            F                            G
Let me stain your pain with disinterest
C                            F                            G
Just let me be there for the rest

[Pre-chorus]

A                            G                            F
I might be a wild flower dyin in the shade
A                            G                            F
I might be a wild pain growin in your head

[Chorus]

C            G                            F
Let me be your saviour
C                            G
I can do anything
F
I can save you

C        G                F
Let me be your saviour

G                        F
Just trust in me and I will save

C
Save you
