

Where Dreams Go To Die
The Downtown Fiction

(intro) G D C

G D
Your breath hangs in the air.

Em
It s freezing, but the bus ain t there.

C
You re wishing for someone to stop this.

G D
Back in class again,

Em
You feel just like an empty pen,

C
Loss for words and void of purpose.

G D C
They cornered you, there s nowhere to get out.
How? How?

Em C
They ll try to convince you
G D
and tell you that they re right.

Em C
They ll break you and beat you

G D
and steal away your life

Em C G D
And tell you that you re nothing and they ll never get it right,

Em D
But high school s the place where dreams go to die.

(instrumental) G D C

G D
Teacher thinks you re rude
Em
Says, I dont like your attitude .

C
Well maybe you re just condescending

G D
But bring us up to follow rules

Em
And throw us all in cubic rooms

C
But we re not gonna sit by idle.

G D C
We re getting out, we re gonna find our way
Hey, hey.

(refrão)

G D
Well, we ll be more than they ll ever be
Em C
Just bitter from their own failed dreams.
G D Em C
They re desperate, and do anything to bring you down.
G D
Well, we ll do more than they ever did
Em C
Talk down to some poor old kid.
G D C
We are the ones, the ones who made it.

Em C
They ll try to convince you
G D
and tell you that they re right.
Em C
They ll break you and beat you
G D
and steal away your life
Em C G D
And tell you that you re nothing and they ll never get it right,
Em D
But high school s the place where dreams,
Em D
But high school s the place where dreams,
Em D G D C
But high school s the place where dreams go to die.
