

You Were Wrong
The Downtown Fiction

check out their website and myspace:
www.thedowntownfiction.com
www.myspace.com/thedowntownfiction

Verse 1:

E B
Made up your mind.
A E B
The room is closing in, you need to find
A E
A place where you can run
B
Before you re locked down.
F#m A
This life s becoming too predictable.

Chorus 1:

E
Give me what you got, I ll take it cause I,
B
Really think I m in the wrong direction.
F#m
You re giving up on finding love,
B A
It took too long.
E
You were... wrong.

Verse 2:

E B
We re growing up.
A E B
You re scared that maybe this won t be enough
A E
To satisfy the urdge, but will you make it?
B F#m A B
You know this life will get the best of you.

Chorus 2:

E
Give me what you got, I ll take it cause I,
B
Really think I m in the wrong direction.
F#m
You re giving up on finding love,
B A
It took too long.

E

And she said, give me what you got, I ll take it cause I m

B

Desperately in need of your affection.

F#m

B A

You re heading back to what you looked for all along

Bridge:

F#m

If you could find a way

A

To make your big mistake,

E B A F#m E B A

Will it be worth it?

F#m

Well you were searching for something,

E B

I hope that you found what you re looking for...

(Repeat Chorus 1 and 2)

E B F#m A

You were wrong

E

B

F#m A

Yeah, you re heading back to what you looked for all along.

B

E

You were... wrong.

Feel free to email me with any comments or corrections:

lehaylett@bellsouth.net