

A Night At The Roses
The Dresden Dolls

F Am
You should see yourself

F Am
When will you grow up?

F C Bb F
Every knob you twist on that machine is like a crutch

F Am
But I was just the fool

F Am
You d been waiting for

F C Bb F
Who says we can t touch ourselves to keep from getting bored?

C Bb F
Nothing else is touching, that s for sure

Bb F
A ring around the Roses

F Am
But I will watch you play

F Am
I come here every night

F C Bb F
It s just me, the bartender, the waitress and the lights

C Bb F
Shining on you, not getting it right

C Bb F
We clap not for you, but for your kind

Bb
A ring around the Roses

F
Everybody poses

Bb

Threats and then backs down

F

The second you put clothes on

Bb

A ring around the Roses

F

Everybody knows it

Bb

I will sing your fears if

F

You sing my neurosis

F

And you should back out now

Am

F

Not a night too soon

Am

F

Iâ€™ll still be here when the last poor soul has left the room

C

Bb

F

C

Standing round just like a good friend should

Bb

F

C

Smiling as if your songs were good

Bb

F

Bb

A ring around the Roses

F

Everybody poses

Bb

Threats and then backs down

F

The second you put clothes on

Bb

A ring around the Roses

F

Everybody knows it

Bb

I will sing your fears if

F

You sing my neurosis

F

Am

And I sat there for hours

F

Am

Waiting on the curb

F

C

Bb

F

Thinking you might like a flower from a pretty girl

C

Bb

F

A ring around the waitress from the verse

C

Bb

F

A ring of fire around the Roses door

C

Bb

F

Put it on before you lose your nerve

C

Bb

F

Put your hands together and they ll hurt

C

Bb

F

Put your hands together and they ll hurt

C

Bb

F

Put your hands together and they ll hurt

C

Bb

F

Put your hands together and they ll hurt

C

Bb

F

Put your hands together and they ll hurt

C

Bb

F

Make your sound that no one s ever heard

C

Bb

F

Make your sound that no one s ever heard

C

Bb

F

And I hope we get what we deserve
