One Sunday morning

Dm

While I was out walking

F

By the Brisbane s waters

Am

I chanced to stray

Dm

There I found a prisoner

Layed half in the water

F

He d seen me coming

Am

And he began to say

Dm

I was a native of Erin s Ireland

F

And before I was brought

Am

To this terrible place

Dm

They dragged me away

Dm

From my wife and newborn

F

Am

And my ailing parents

G

I ve been a prisoner at Port Macquarie

Dm

Norfolk Island and Emu Plains

G

At Castle Hill and cursed Toongabbie

B7

At all of these settlements

B7

I ve worked in chains

G

But of all the places of condemnation

Dm

At each penal station of New South Wales

G

To Moreton Bay I ve found no equal

B7

The tyranny there makes all the rest pale

repeat until forever
