Molly Maguires The Dubliners

The Molly Maguires as performed by the Dubliners

F
C
Make way for the Molly Maguires,

Bb
F
they re drinkers, they re liars, but they re man.

F
C
Make way for the Molly Maguires,

Bb
C
F

Down the mines no sunlight shines, those pits they re black as hell;

F
Bb
F
C
F
in modest style they do their time, it s Paddy s prison cell;

Dm
Am
Bb
C
and they curse the day they travelled far and down their tears with a jar.

Make way for the Molly Maguires...

Backs will break and muscles ache down there no time to dream of fields afar of a womans arm just dig that bloody seam though they drain their bodies and their brow who dare to push them around.

you ll never see the likes of them again.

Make way for the Molly Maguires...