G Am C D

If my senses fail, stay with me til they go cause I don t wanna be alone.

G Am C D

Greetings in Braille, they ll describe everything, colors aren t everything.

G Am C D

And if you see me, down at the liquor store, please don t tell my dad.

G Am C D G

And if you see my dad, down at the liquor store, don t tell me anything at all.

Am C D G

And the people you brought were just drainpipes bringing trash to the ground.

Am C D

And your memories are just picture cards, one night stands and breakdowns.

G C

And you were cold, tired and old as you d ever looked that night.

G C

And we were warned, yeah. We were warned not to stay out too late.

D C D C G

But somethings were worth getting in trouble for.
