This Song The Enemy

Artist - The Enemy Song - This Song Album - We ll Live & Die In These Towns

i saw these at leeds festival this year and though they were best band on the day, this particular day also featured anti flag, taking back sunday and even rage against the machine!

this isnt the exact version, this is just a version i campe up with and sounds pretty

exactly right =]

Verse 1

A1

Half the kids who you grew up with

A2 A1

were pushin prams by the time that they were just sixteen

A1

If love is a drug then where is the cure

A2 A1 A2

A2

For the girl who used to talk to you about her dream

Α1

And all the boys with all their toys

A2 A1 A2

Couldnt see the signs as we scortched out eyes with nicotine

A1

And the grown ups said, listen to your head

A2 A1 A2

But our hearts were crying out for heroes on  ${\tt TV}$  screens

```
Prechorus
                                  A2
          D5
                             A1
 Now this song is about you
F#
          D5
 Now this song is about...
Chorus
Changes in your mind
Changes in your life
Changes in the times
And the reason you can t sleep at night
Changes in your mind
Changes in your life
Changes in the times
And the reason you gave up the fight
INTERLUDE - A1 A2 [X2]
A1
Half the kids that arnt pushing prams,
                                                             A2
Are pushing pills to boys and girls who are half their age
        A1
And the pubs and clubs are full of drunks,
                                                        A1
A2
They dont remember the day the were born or even their mum or the names
                                A2
An old man sings a tune but hes drowned out by a fight next to a fruit
   A1
             A2
machine.
                                         A2
And all of this, our hearts, our nation, total lack of civilization
A1
   will it ever be the same?
Outro
          A2
                    A1
Now, this song, is about, is about, is about you
          A2
                    A1
Now, this song, is about, is about, is about you
```

A1

A2

A1

Now, this song, is about, is about, is about you
