Down In The Willow Garden chords
American Folk (performed by the Everly Brothers)

G C G Em
Down in the willow garden,
G Em
where me and my love did meet

G C G Em
As we sat a-courtin ,
G D G
my love fell off to sleep

Em D G Em
I had a bottle of burgundy wine,
G Em
my love she did not know
G C G Em
So I poisoned that dear little girl,
G D G
along the banks below

G C G Em
I drew a sabre through her,
G Em
it was a bloody knife
G C G Em
I threw her in the river,
G D G
which was a dreadful sight

Em D G Em
My father often told me,
G Em
that money would set me free
C C G Em
If I would murder that dear little girl,
G D G
whose name was Rose Connolly

Em      C                      G      Em
My father sits at his cabin door,
G                                      Em
wiping his tear-dimmed eyes
            G      C      G                      Em
For his only son soon shall walk,
G              D              G
to yonder scaffold high

Em              D              G              Em
My race is run, beneath the sun,
G                                      Em
the scaffold now waits for me
G              C                      G                      Em
For I did murder that dear little girl,
G                      D                      G
whose name was Rose Connelly
