

Stained Glass Morning
The Everly Brothers

Stained-Glass Morning

D G
Through a stained-glass morning theyâ€™re digginâ€™ in the green grass again
D G
Whoâ€™s that mourninâ€™ I have seen her face somewhere, but when

D G
Well fold up the flag that was covering him
D G
Give it to the woman that was lovinâ€™ him
D G
And whisper that he died defending her liberty

Em A7 D
But theyâ€™ll lay him six feet down in some far-off piece of ground
D7 G
With one stone markinâ€™ him where three should be

Chorus:

D G
Cause theyâ€™ll never give her back the song he would sing
D G
And theyâ€™ll never give her back the child he would bring
D G
And theyâ€™ll never give her back the brother they took from me

D G A D G D

Through a stained-glass morning a thousand years have greened the grass again
In the rain I hang mourninâ€™
A face I couldnâ€™t recognise, then

Well fold up the flag that was coverinâ€™ me
Give it to the woman that was lovinâ€™ me
Then whisper that I died defending her liberty
But they laid me six feet down in some far-off piece of ground
With one stone markinâ€™ me where three should be

Chorus +:

Through a stained-glass morninâ€™
