

Stained Glass Morning
The Everly Brothers

Stained-Glass Morning

C F
Through a stained-glass morning theyâ€™re digginâ€™ in the green grass again
C F
Whoâ€™s that mourninâ€™ I have seen her face somewhere, but when

C F
Well fold up the flag that was covering him
C F
Give it to the woman that was lovinâ€™ him
C F
And whisper that he died defending her liberty

Dm G7 C
But theyâ€™ll lay him six feet down in some far-off piece of ground
C7 F
With one stone markinâ€™ him where three should be

Chorus:

C F
Cause theyâ€™ll never give her back the song he would sing
C F
And theyâ€™ll never give her back the child he would bring
C F
And theyâ€™ll never give her back the brother they took from me

Through a stained-glass morning a thousand years have greened the grass again
In the rain I hang mourninâ€™
A face I couldnâ€™t recognise, then

Well fold up the flag that was coverinâ€™ me
Give it to the woman that was lovinâ€™ me
Then whisper that I died defending her liberty
But they laid me six feet down in some far-off piece of ground
With one stone markinâ€™ me where three should be

Chorus +:

Through a stained-glass morninâ€™
