

The Silent Treatment
The Everly Brothers

---

The Silent Treatment - The Everly Brothers

---

Written by: Hoffman/Manning

Recorded in 1960 but left unissued.. First released on the 1977 "New Album".
Now a bonus track on: "It's Everly Time / A Date with the Everly Brothers".

Tabbed by: maguri

Tuning: Standard

Capo: 1st fret

Play: D

Key: Eb/D#

For original chords transpose +1

---

[Intro]

| D | % |

[Verse]

          D                  Bm                  Em                  A                  D  Dmaj7
If I called you once I must have called you a thousand times
          D6      A                                  D
You're never home, never, never, never home

          D          Bm                  Em                  A          D  Dmaj7
Every time I call your mother gives me the same old line
                  E7                                  A
It's plain to see, you're ducking me

[Chorus]

                  A
Am I gettin' the silent treatment
D                  A
  Silent treatment, silent treatment
          D                                  A
From you, gee, I hate this cold and silent treatment
D                  A
  Silent treatment, silent treatment
          D
From you, oo, say it ain't true

[Interlude]

| D Bm | Em A | D Bm | Em A |

[Verse]

D Bm Em A Dmaj7
We used to be as close as pages in a book

A D
Baby whatâ€™s the score; donâ€™t you love me anymore

D Bm Em A D
Weâ€™ve been apart so long Iâ€™ve forgotten how you look
E7 A
I miss you so, please let me know

[Chorus] + coda

A
Am I gettinâ€™ the silent treatment

D A
Silent treatment, silent treatment

D A
From you, gee, I hate this cold and silent treatment

D A
Silent treatment, silent treatment

D D
From you, oo, say it ainâ€™t true