Leviathans Home! by The Finches

Capo on 3rd fret

Intro:

G C G D

Well, I rode a whale of a love home that night

With a harpoon stuck fast in my side

I gave no thought to un-healing harms

As I rode my leviathan home

Let the crabs claw away in their castles

Let the clams clamp away at their boards

Let the barnacles dip their ghostly ships

Let the new tide swallow the shore

The new tide will swallow the shore

While the crabs cackle out of their confines

Let their sounds sink into the sea

Cause all of these waves

Will smoothly sway

Forming the yes infinitely

And all these days

Will blew away

As soon as you say yes to me

Watch the sun slide under the ocean

You can press my palm
 C D G
You can be my leviathan

I will be your leviathan

While the do-rights waste in their one-rooms
 C G
Let the do-wrongs hurry along

Let the renegades and the castaways

Find their leviathans

Let the ocean wave

May you ride your leviathan home
