G#

Is that gash in your leg really why you have stopped
Cause I ve noticed all the others though they re gashed they re stiull going
C# cause I feel like the real reason that you re quitting is that you re admitting G# F# G#
that you ve lost all the will to battle on

Chorus:

C# Eb
Will the fight for sanity
Cm Fm
Be the fight of our lives
C# Eb
Now that we ve lost all the reasons
Cm Eb
That we thought that we had

Verse:

G#
Still the battle that we re in rages on til the end
Eb
With the explosions words are open sights and smells
C#
eyes and noses, but the thought that went unspoken
G#
was understanding that you re broken - still the last F# G# F#
volunteer battles on,
G# F# battles on,
G# battles on...
