There s a place everyone of us can go to
F
Maybe you have been there once or twice
C7
Where all your friends just look at you and whisper
G C7
They want to give you nothing but advice
F C7
When you walk in they all know what you re after
F
And the higher that you get the more they ll see
F Bb
In a dark room filled with music, wine and laughter
F C7 F C7 F
Your eyes keep searching for her constantly
Bb F
Is it that one in the corner with her eyes filled with tears
D7 G C7
Or is she the one who s having fun drinking too much beer
F C7
Every night it s the same sad old procedure
F
The doorman winks at you on your way out
Bb
Cause deep inside he knows you ll be returning
F C7 F C7 F
And he s got something you can t live without
Bb
There s nothing new that can be said about dirt
F D7 G C7
And there s nothing left inside your heart but the same old hurt
F Bb
Of an old love s fancy life that left you stranded in a dream

Ain t you glad you re a high fashion queen
