A
Yes I know she s the life of the party
A E
And without her things here would die.
A A7 D
Oh but don t be fooled by her laughter
A E A
She has her sad times and she knows how to cry
D A
She drinks and she talks just a little to loud
B7 E7
And with her bright gown she hangs around with any old crowd
A A7 D
Yes I know I m to blame and I feel so ashamed
A E7 A
That I made her the image of me

A D
I met her in a little country town

A E
She was simple and old fashioned in some ways

A D
But she loved me till I dragged her down

A E A A7
Then she just gave up and drifted away

D A
She drinks and she talks just a little too loud

B7 E7
And with her bright gown, she hangs around with any old crowd

A A7 D
Yes I know I'm to blame and I feel so ashamed

A E7 A

That I made her the image of me
