Well I pulled out of Pittsburgh rolling down that Eastern seaboard
I got my diesel wound up & she s arunning like never before
There s a speed zone ahead on the right and
I don t see a cop in sight
Six days on the road & I m gonna make it home tonight
I got ten forward gears and a George Overdrive
                                                F#
I m takin little white pills & my eyes are opened wide
I just passed a Jimmy and White
I been passing everything in sight
                         F#
Six days on the road & I m gonna make it home tonight

                                                F#
Well I m a little overweight but my law books way behind
But nothing bothers me tonight
I m gonna dodge all the scales allright
Six days on the road & I m gonna make it home tonight
