The Flying Burrito Brothers (Merle Haggard) *

D G A D

D G A F#m A7 D
White line fever, a sickness born down deep within my soul
G A F#m A7 D
White line fever, the years keep flying by like a high line pole

G A D
The wrinkles in my forehead, show the miles I ve put behind me
G Em G A
They continue to remind me, how fast I m growing old
A7 D
Guess I ll die with this fever in my soul

D A D
I wonder just what makes a man keep pushing on
A D
Why must I keep on singing this old highway song?
G A D
I ve been from coast to coast a 100 times or more
G A D
I haven t found one place that I ain t been before

D G A F#m A7 D
White line fever, a sickness born down deep within my soul
G A F#m A7 D
White line fever, the years keep flying by like a high line pole
