

Russian Ship
The Frank And Walters

Russian Ship - The Frank And Walters

Intro: G, Bm, Em, C, D (twiddle and walk from chord to chord)

G Bm
There s a Russian ship out lost at sea in changing Times
Em C D
And there s a lonely tide that brings to mind the days gone by
G Bm
And the simple fact that leads me back is that no one cared
Em C D
There s a Russian ship out lost at sea and I feel scared

C G
And look now, look there s another book
Bm Em
And look now, there s a story
Am D
That in Kiev they were tearing down statues

Chorus:

G Bm
Tzaralena where s our world gone
C D
Tzaralena where s our home gone
G Bm
Mother Russia s out there sinking
C D
And the Western world is thinking
Em Am D
That we re better off than what we were

G Bm
And the Russian ship that s lost at sea is listing fast
Em C D
cause the man who tried the changing winds, has burst its mast
G Bm
As I think about what s left and how it s come to this
Em C D
And the shame inside cause I denied the days I miss

C G

And look, now look there s another book

Bm

Em

And look now there s a person

Am

D

Says he s Russian and he once defied Lenin

G

Bm

Tzaralena where s our world gone

C

D

Tzaralena where s our home gone

G

Bm

Mother Russia s out there sinking

C

D

And the Western world is thinking

Em

Am

D

That we re better off than what we were

Am Am Am Am

Am Am Am Am

G G G G

Do you think we ll ever be happy here

G G G G

Em Em Em Em

In a come what may

G G G G

Am

D

Do you think we ll ever be satisfied

G

C

D

Living life this way?

Chorus with Dsus2 to end