Halloween Blues
The Fratellis

   Super easy song, really fun to play too. Consists of 2 chords, E s and A s.
Although you can play E7 and A7 and it sounds good too, play whatever you like more.
Personally I like to play E s and A for the verses, then play
E7 and A7 for the let em all shiver, let em all shake parts

In case you don t know how to play E A E7 or A7 chords, here ya go:
    E|-0-|        E|-0-|

                  E
I m gonna be the next Harry Belafonte
                       A
You might as well be serious
                  E
If you ve got the answers, you might as well say
                            E
There ll be no one who can thrill me
                  E
There s not a soul alive s got a half of my brains
But they ll try their best to kill me
 Cause when you got the Halloween blues, it s best to complain
