

Enough For Now
The Fray

It may not be perfect, but as far as I can tell it s right...

Tuning - Eb (down 1/2 step)

intro - Em D G Em D C

(Verse 1)

Em D G Em D C
The Daughters Father watches, quiet ly we assume

Em D G Em D C
He s no longer with us but he left this dusty room

Em D G
And your name it s an honor

Em D C
It s a shame but it s your honor

Em D G
To take it on your shoulder

Em D C
til you can find another

[Chorus]

Em D G
That s enough for now

C D
He should have never left you broken

Em
He should have held you

C
Things your Father never told you

Em D G
That s enough for now

C D
He would have never left you broken

Em
He would have held you

C
Things your Father never could do

[Verse 2] - same progression as verse 1

The century before me, never could turn 21
Years and years he waited, just watching for a son someone to go ahead, to take the name instead
Years and years he waited, then a daughter came instead

[Chorus]

Without so much as a kiss